Use of Telehealth - Examining the CV clinician perspective | SURVEY

All cardiovascular clinicians are invited to complete an anonymous online survey examining clinician perspectives on the use of telehealth for cardiovascular care (Medicare-eligible and non-Medicare eligible). The Tele-PC Study is funded by SPHERE and led by A/Prof Sally Inglis (UTS Sydney) and Prof Peter Macdonald (SVHS, UNSW)

TAKE THE SURVEY HERE

The survey will only take 7-8 minutes to complete.

INTERVIEWS

All clinicians (nurses, cardiologists, allied health) are also invited to participate in a brief semi-structured phone/video interview to discuss their views and experiences of providing cardiovascular care through telehealth. For further information or interested in participating in the interview - contact sally.inglis@uts.edu.au

(Survey responses will not be linked to interview participation.)
